Daniels-Parke Vows Are Recited in Long Beach

In a double ring ceremony at the North Long Beach Brethren Church on Aug. 21 at 8 p.m., Miss Geraldine N. Daniels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Daniels, 24802 Oak St., Lomita, became the bride of Paul Arthur Parke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reed S. Parke, of Long Beach.

After the singing of "An Affair to Remember" by Glenn Elder, the bride approached the altar on the arm of her father as the organist, Loraine Yocky, played the wedding march.

The bride wore a Cahill original gown of Chantilly lace, fashioned with a long torso and a full skirt which fell into a sweep train. The gown had a portrait neckline and short sleeves. A crown of lace embroidered with sequins and pearls held the illusion veil. The bridal bouquet was of white orchids, gardenias and stephanotis.

Miss Jeanette Wright of Torrance was the maid of honor. She wore a yellow nylon organza dress and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Bridesmaids were Robin Ryland of Rolling Hills, Pat Kinton of San Gabriel, Mickey Dupuy of Wilmington and Tina Seaborn of Belmont Shore. They wore identical gowns of yellow organza and carried yellow roses.

Cindy Eaton was the flower girl and Wayne Blake, Jr. served as ringbearer. Candles were lighted by Pamela Eaton and Lorrie Seaborn.

Larry Parke stood as his brother's best man and ushers were Craig Seaton, Jack Maguire, William Wolff and Ralph Vogel.

Rev. Curtis C. Mitchell conducted the marriage ceremony. A reception was held for the 200 guests in the Church hall. Miss Jo Ann Wilson registered the guests.

Both the bride and her husband are American Roller Skating champions, which has won for them recognition in the "World Almanac", the

They Saw the US

Over 100 parents and other relatives gathered at the home of Mrs. Adam Krauszer, 2318 Sonoma, last Thursday evening to greet the Torrance Senior Girl Scout troop 1299 who had just completed a tour of the United States. These girls, by bus, visited the places of greatest interest in the United States. They were accompanied by Mmes. Gordon Arrasmith, Paul Bischoff, Willis Blount, Joseph Cannon, G. Bolotin, Richard Giles, Charles Robinson, and leaders, Mrs. Krauszer and Mrs. Fred Hansen.

Marsha Hunt, one of the Scouts on the trip had this to say:

"We will have these moments to remember... rambling through Bourbon Street and the French Quarters in New Orleans, Cypress Gardens in Florida, the night view of the liberty bell in Independence Hall, the Washington monument, the Jefferson and Lincoln memorials in Washington, D. C., and the Old North Church in Boston."

The girls were given conducted tours through the White House, House of Representatives, the Senate and a special tour of Vice-President Nixon's office.

While in New York they visited the United Nations Building, St. John's Church and the Empire State Building.

After New York, they went on to Boston and attended a candlelight service at the Old North Church.

Enroute home the girls and their chaperones visited the Mormon Temple in Salt Lake City and Las Vegas, Nev.

Making the trip were Donna Arrasmith, Paula and Edith Bischoff, Mary Margaret Blount, Barbara Campbell, Joyce Cannon, Mardell Clayton, Dyann Dovey, Gerry Day, Joan Donald, Sharon Giles, Susan Hammack, Marsha Hunt, Denise Hunter, Diane Hunter, Janice Jackson, Ginny Krauszer, Sharon Ricci, Loretta Robinson and Jackie Scherer.
